

Enchanted Croí Theatre Ltd.

Company Profile 2022-2023

about.

Enchanted Croí Theatre Ltd. is a rapidly-growing, highly sought-after women-led professional theatre company founded in 2019 by longtime theatre-maker Anne-Marie O'Sullivan, located in Strokestown, Co Roscommon. Enchanted Croí Theatre creates a range of theatrical productions, including musicals, site-specific theatre, and digital theatre. The company is a major provider of theatre education and workshop facilitation in schools and educational centres, and a trusted event supplier for the National Famine Museum at Strokestown Park and its parent organization, the Irish Heritage Trust. The company is insured to €6.2 million and produces annual audited financial statements.

funding.

Since 2021, the company has received funding from:

Roscommon Co Council Local Live Performance
Programming Scheme: €33,000

King House and the National Famine Museum, via the Roscommon Co Council Local Live Performance
Programming Scheme: €17,749

Irish Heritage Trust, via the Roscommon Co Council
Decade of Centenaries Initiative 2021-2022: €500

The National Famine Museum, via the Night Time
Economy Support Scheme: €15,165

The Irish Heritage Trust, via the Roscommon Co
Council Festivals and Events Scheme: €1000

Irish Heritage Trust, via Roscommon Co Council funding for Culture Night: €1350

impact.

In 2022, the company has:

Produced 10 theatrical events of varying size and scale, including the new full-scale original folk musical "In the Midst of Plenty"

Employed more than 40 creative arts professionals on a freelance basis, with all actors paid consistent with the standards
for Irish Actors' Equity

Worked with 350 children in 14 schools and community centres as part of the Arts in Schools and BLAST Arts-in-Education
Residency programs

Reached 4000+ ticketed audience members